Dear Parents and Carers,

The end of another super week at FJS, the weeks are flying by. I've seen kindness, learning and a bucket load of creativity. I popped down to year 3 this week and looked at their English books. They blew me away! Their writing looks so grown up, neat, and full of fantastic descriptive language. Year 4 have been learning about the World Wide Web and the notion of copyrighting content. Year 5 children have been to show me their brilliant maths work. In year 6 they have been enjoying the Maafa topic, particularly the integration of black culture.

Year 3 Little Owls class came to FJS yesterday and had a great time at forest school. Tawny Owls turn is next week on the 17th.

Today we enjoyed Harvest Assembly with the whole school. Revd Tracy Jessop came in and spoke to the children. She was very impressed by their behaviours. Please remember to donate to the Mid Norfolk Foodbank (Salvation Army, 16 Oak Street, Fakenham, NR21 9DY) if you can.

Dates for your diary:

- Friday 18th October – Dress Down Friday
- Friday 25th October – INSET Day, school closed to
- Mon 28th Oct – Fri 1st Nov – Half Term

I hope you all have a lovely weekend,
Tom Scannell and all the staff at Fakenham Juniors
